

Hospitality

Description

Unique challenges confront the hospitality industry. And the diverse businesses in this industry require a deep understanding of those challenges by their legal advocates. Based in San Diego – a city whose economy is dependent on thriving tourism and convention industries – Dunn DeSantis Walt & Kendrick's attorneys have years of experience representing and counseling a broad range of clients in the hospitality industry, including luxury hotels, exclusive resorts, restaurants, spas, and non-medical healing/recovery centers.

In a competitive industry where success is reliant on the customer experience and satisfaction, our hospitality attorneys work symbiotically with you to address and abate daily operational concerns regarding contracts, agreements, and employment issues. We also assist with corporate transactions and in navigating the legal issues involved in related real estate and construction projects. Dunn DeSantis Walt & Kendrick's interdisciplinary practice approach provides savvy counsel to those in this demanding industry, with attorneys skilled in employment law, business litigation, and all aspects of liability and risk management.

We are trusted advisors to clients in the hospitality industry. We enjoy representing consumer-focused businesses. As with all our practice areas, a hallmark of Dunn DeSantis Walt & Kendrick's approach is our emphasis on responsive and sophisticated solutions. We understand the need for fast, discreet, confidential counsel to the owners of hotels, resorts, spas and restaurants.

Highlights

- Provide outside general counsel services to ownership of 5-star hotels and resorts on all aspects of risk management and employment law.
- Prosecuted an inverse condemnation claim on behalf of a San Diego restaurant group affected by construction in the Gaslamp District resulting in a substantial settlement for the restaurant.

- Regularly advise cannabis industry business owners on their unique industry and related legal questions.
- Engaged to represent several San Diego restaurant and nightclub owners in connection with employment law disputes and counseling.